The Liturgy of the Word

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

The merciful love of the Lord fills the earth; by the word of the Lord the heavens were made, alleluia.

FIRST READING

Acts 4:8-12

Filled with the Holy spirit, Peter said: 'Rulers of the people, and elders! If you are questioning us today about an act of kindness to a cripple, and asking us how he was healed, then I am glad to tell you all, and would indeed be glad to tell the whole people of Israel, that it was by the name of Jesus Christ the Nazarene, the one you crucified, whom God raised from the dead, by this name and by no other that this man is able to stand up perfectly healthy, here in your presence today. This is the stone rejected by you the builders, but which has proved to be the keystone. For of all the names in the world given to men, this is the only one by which we can be saved.'

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

R. The stone rejected by the builders has become the corner-stone.

SECOND READING

1 John 3:1-2

Think of the love that the Father has lavished on us, by letting us be called God's children; and that is what we are. Because the world refused to acknowledge him, therefore it does not acknowledge us. My dear people, we are already the children of God but what we are to be in the future has not yet been revealed; all we know is, that when it is revealed, we shall be like him because we shall see him as he really is.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the good shepherd, says the Lord; I know my sheep, and mine know me.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

John 10:11-18

Jesus said: I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd is one who lays down his life for his sheep. The hired man, since he is not the shepherd and the sheep do not belong to him, abandons the sheep and runs away as soon as he sees a wolf coming, and then the wolf attacks and scatters the sheep; this is because he is only a hired man and has no concern for the sheep. I am the good shepherd; I know my own and my own know me, just as my Father knows me and I know the Father; and I lay down my life for my sheep. And there are other sheep I have that are not of this fold, and these I have to lead as well. They too will listen to my voice, and there will be only one flock, and one shepherd. The Father loves me, because I lay down my life in order to take it up again. No one takes it from me; I lay it down of my own free will, as long as it is in my power to lay it down, so it is in my power to take it up again; and this is the command I have been given by my Father.'

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

The Good Shepherd has risen, who laid down his life for his sheep and willingly died for his flock, alleluia.

"I AM THE GOOD SHEPHERD. THE GOOD SHEPHERD GIVES HIS LIFE FOR THE SHEEP."
JOHN 10:11

5 of 12 Safeguarding Messages:

You must never touch another person's private body parts, even if an older child or adult asks you to. Say no, then go and tell a trusted adult.

This message is placed at the request of the Safeguarding Office of the Perth Archdiocese.

GOSPEL REFLECTION

Have any of you ever tried to move a mob of sheep from one paddock to another? I have. My uncle was a farmer, and once, many years ago while staying with my aunt and uncle, my uncle asked some of my cousins and me to help him move a mob of sheep out of one paddock. Sheep are hard work. And that is why what Jesus says in today's Gospel is so astounding. For the people of Israel sheep were important animals. They not only provided meat. They also provided wool, milk, oil and skins. Because sheep were so necessary to the life of Ancient Israel, shepherds were important people. The life of the community depended – in part – on them. If a shepherd was slack and did not look after his sheep; if the shepherd let the sheep run away; if the shepherd let the sheep be attacked, the people ultimately suffered. The people who first heard these words of Jesus knew this, just as they knew the value of a good shepherd, and the dangers of a poor shepherd. Jesus proclaims himself to be the Good Shepherd, the One who knows his sheep, and the One who will lay down his life for his sheep. In the light of this Easter Candle, these words ring with an even deeper truth for us. Jesus is the same one who was risen on the third day to destroy death forever. But it is not enough that Jesus is the Good Shepherd. In Baptism, we are baptised into the life, death, and Resurrection of Jesus. Because of this Baptism, we are called to be Christ in the world today. And that baptismal vocation is strengthened in the Sacrament of Confirmation. Through our washing in the waters of new life in the Sacrament of Baptism, and our anointing with Sacred Chrism in the Sacrament of Confirmation, we are called to be the good shepherds for our world today. For this reason, the Church asks us, on this Good Shepherd Sunday during the Easter Season, to remember the vocation which arises from Baptism and Confirmation. All of us are called and indeed challenged to be Christ in the world. Good Shepherd Sunday is also a day when the Church asks us to pray especially for vocations to the priesthood and religious life. So, on this Good Shepherd Sunday, in a special way, we turn to God in prayer. And our prayer is that God will continue to provide pastors for his Church, shepherds after his own heart. Priests who will faithfully proclaim the Word of God; priests who will minister the Sacraments and equip the People of God for ministry. And we pray, too, that God may give us warm and generous hearts with which to always support and encourage our priests.

4TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Jesus takes care of us just as a good shepherd takes care of his sheep. He knows each one of us, and we know him and are glad to follow him wherever he leads.

LET US PRAY

Jesus, you are the Good Shepherd, and we are your flock. Help us to know your voice and always follow you.
