3rd Sunday of Ordinary Time – Year A

Sunday, 25th January 2026

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

O sing a new song to the Lord; sing to the Lord all the earth. In his presence are majesty and splendour, strength and honour in his holy place.

FIRST READING

Isaiah 8:23-9:3

In days past the Lord humbled the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, but in days to come he will confer glory on the Way of the Sea on the far side of Jordan, province of the nations.

The people that walked in darkness has seen a great light; on those who live in a land of deep shadow a light has shone. You have made their gladness greater, you have made their joy increase; they rejoice in your presence as men rejoice at harvest time, as men are happy when they are dividing the spoils.

For the yoke that was weighing on him, the bar across his shoulders, the rod of his oppressor, these you break as on the day of Midian.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

R. The Lord is my light and my salvation.

SECOND READING

Corinthians 1: 10-13.17

I appeal to you, brothers, for the sake of our Lord Jesus Christ, to make up the differences between you, and instead of disagreeing among yourselves, to be united again in your belief and practice. From what Chloe's people have been telling me, my dear brothers, it is clear that there are serious differences among you. What I mean are all these slogans that you have, like: 'I am for Paul', 'I am for Apollos', 'I am for Cephas', 'I am for Christ'. Has Christ been parcelled out? Was it Paul that was crucified for you? Were you baptised in the name of Paul? For Christ did not send me to baptise, but to preach the Good News, and not to preach that in the terms of philosophy in which the crucifixion of Christ cannot be expressed.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

Jesus preached the Good News of the kingdom and healed all who were sick.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Matthew 4: 12-23

Hearing that John had been arrested Jesus went back to Galilee, and leaving Nazareth he went and settled in Capernaum, a lakeside town on the borders of Zebulun and Naphtali. In this way the prophecy of Isaiah was to be fulfilled: Land of Zebulun! Land of Naphtali! Way of the sea on the far side of Jordan, Galilee of the nations! The people that lived in darkness has seen a great light; on those who dwell in the land and shadow of death a light has dawned. From that moment Jesus began his preaching with the message, 'Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is close at hand.' As he was walking by the Sea of Galilee he saw two brothers, Simon, who was called Peter, and his brother Andrew; they were making a cast in the lake with their net, for they were fishermen. And he said to them, 'Follow me and I will make you fishers of men.' And they left their nets at once and followed him. Going on from there he saw another pair of brothers, James, son of Zebedee, and his brother John: they were in their boat their father Zebedee, mending their nets, and he called them. At once, leaving the boat and their father, they followed him. He went round the whole of Galilee teaching in their synagogues, proclaiming the Good News of the kingdom and curing all kinds of diseases and sickness among the people.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

Look toward the Lord and be radiant; let your faces not be abashed.

The Gospel from today's liturgy narrates the call of the first disciples who, along the lake of Galilee leave everything to follow Jesus. He had already met some of them, thanks to John the Baptist, and God had placed the seed of faith within them. So now, Jesus goes back to look for them where they live and work. The Lord always looks for us. The Lord always draws near to us, always. This time, he extends a direct call to them: "Follow me!". And "immediately they left their nets and followed him". Let's take a moment to reflect on this scene. This is the moment of a decisive encounter with Jesus one they would remember their entire lives and would be included in the Gospel. From then on, they follow Jesus. And in order to follow him, they leave. To leave so as to follow. And it is always like this with Jesus. It can begin in some way with a sense of attraction, perhaps due to others. Then the awareness can become more personal and can kindle a light in the heart. It becomes something beautiful to share: "You know that passage from the Gospel struck me.... That service opportunity I had struck me..." – something that touches your heart. This is what happened with the first disciples. But sooner or later, the moment comes in which it is necessary to leave so as to follow. That is when it is necessary to make a decision: Shall I leave behind some certainties and embark on a new adventure, or shall I remain like I am? This is a decisive moment for every Christian because the meaning of everything else is at stake here. If someone does not find the courage to set out on the journey, the risk is to remain a spectator of one's own existence and to live the faith halfway. To stay with Jesus, therefore, requires the courage to leave, to set out on the journey. What must we leave behind? Our vices and our sins, certainly, which are like anchors that hold us at bay and prevent us from setting sail. To begin to leave, it is only right that we begin by asking forgiveness – forgiveness for the things that are not beautiful. I leave these things behind to move forward. But it is also necessary to leave behind what holds us back from living fully, for example, fear, selfish calculations, the guarantees that come from staying safe, just getting by. In short, to live life, we need to accept the challenge to leave. Today, Jesus extends this invitation to each of us. So, I leave you with a question about this. Can I remember a "strong moment" in which I have already encountered Jesus? And, is there something beautiful and significant that happened in my life because of which I left other less important things? And today, is there something Jesus asks me to give up? What are the material things, ways of thinking, attitudes I need to leave behind so as to truly say "yes"?

♥ Your marriage deserves this weekend ♥

Every marriage needs time to pause, reconnect, and grow. The Worldwide Marriage Encounter Live-Out Weekend (Bahasa Indonesia) offers couples a special opportunity to step away from daily routines and rediscover the joy, depth, and grace of married life. This weekend is not group therapy or counselling, it's a gentle, faith-based experience that helps couples listen more deeply, communicate more openly, and renew their commitment to one another. Many couples describe it as a chance to reconnect, rediscover, and renew their love. If you're married, whether you've been married several years or for many decades, this weekend is for you. Consider giving your marriage this gift of time, reflection, and grace.

KIDS' CORNER

Gospel

James and John were fishermen. Jesus met them and said, "Come after me, I will make you fishers of men." They stopped fishing and followed Jesus.

THE CHILDREN'S LITURGY IS IN RECESS UNTIL THE START OF SCHOOL IN FEBRUARY 2026.

3RD SUNDAY IN ORD TIME

It is important to remember that Jesus was a very special person, an extraordinary man. Today we hear him ask some fishermen to leave their boats, nets, homes and families to follow his. The remarkable thing is, that's just what they did.

Let us Pray

Jesus, help us to listen when you ask us to follow you. Make us strong enough to walk beside you each day. Help us to share your love with others that we meet, so that we too, lead people to follow you.
